CALL TO SEND: Romans 10:15 \(NKJV\) ¹⁵ And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things!"

I encourage you today to look at the two complementary roles mentioned in this verse: of those who go; and those who send. In Neal Pirolo's book, Serving as Senders, he asserts that "It is clearly established that those who serve as senders share an equal responsibility and privilege with those who go." Those who go and those who serve as senders merge their callings and talents and gifting to form the mission endeavor. All are equally important. All are vitally involved in the fulfillment of the work God has called them to do. All are dynamically integrated and moving towards the same goal. Paul understood the importance of "senders" in his own missionary work. He deeply valued his partnership with the believers who acted as senders, backing his missionary endeavors with prayer, concern, involvement, and provision while they actively ministered at home as senders. (Phil.1:5; 4:15-16).

Who is a sender?

A sender is someone who lives so that the gospel may go forth into all the world. A sender regularly sacrifices time in prayer for missionaries on the front lines, so that the name of Jesus will be lifted up in the earth. A sender is a believer who forsakes their comforts and sacrificially gives their blessing of resources to missions. It is someone who engages other believers with the reality of the Great Commission and encourages them to get involved as one who goes or one who sends!

We appreciate your prayers, love, and support as you serve as senders! Daniel & Hermine Falquez

Jesus March – Shine your light in the city

The church in Saarbrücken joined by several hundred participants took to the streets to declare Jesus and to bless the city. With praise songs, flags, banners, and posters it was a joyful sight to see! Along the route to the city castle they distributed 1000 gifts including treats, and New Testaments to the onlookers. Rounding up the event with presentations, preaching, and the blessing accompanied by the blowing of 10 Shofar horns.

Thank God for the "Gospel witness" received by so many.

Attacks on Christians in Germany's refugee camps condemned

Warnings about the violence against Christians in refugee homes in Germany is being played down or ignored and Germany cannot allow attacks on freedom of religion. Ramin F. comes from Iran, where he converted to Christianity. Now, he lives in a home in eastern Brandenburg just outside of Berlin, together with 120 other refugees, eight of whom are Christians like him. And he says even in Germany, he feels persecuted.

Pray that officials take a stronger stance on the current situation.
Pray for the converted Christian refugees to find proper housing.
