IN THIS ISSUE

In the spirit of Easter and its reason for celebration, the theme for this edition of the magazine is Looking for Jesus. The columns written by General Bishop Loyd Naten and General Secretary Dan Coleman provide thoughtful insights on the topic as they reflect on what it truly means to search for our Savior, knowing what His resurrection means to all Christians.

Additionally, we introduce the soon-to-be graduates of Messenger College – future Pentecostal leaders who are eagerly looking forward to continued service through their respective callings. We also get a glimpse at life on the road with David and Ruby Petty, who share a montage of photos from their travels in 2016 for PCG Indian Missions. And we say farewell to longtime ministry leader Chaplain Lemuel Boyles, who passed away in January but left an indelible mark on our organization.

Throughout this edition, we provide most everything you need to know about the upcoming General Convention and Summerfest events scheduled in Southern California this June. From the schedule of activities to the steps for registering, we have filled this issue with information to aid in planning for the trip.

Hope to see you in Valencia for our next biennial convention!

GENERAL BISHOP LOYD NATEN

LOOKING FOR JESUS

I read a story recently about a man who had placed a nativity scene in his front yard in celebration of Christmas. A few days later, vandals stole his plastic baby Jesus. They left the wise men, Mary, Joseph, and the sheep but took his plastic baby Jesus, which had been lit by a 10-watt bulb. This man was very distressed about the theft and issued a plea. He asked those responsible to bring back the plastic Jesus for his nativity scene. It even made the newspaper, where he was quoted as saying, "Do you know where my Jesus is? Please return Him to me."

In a sense, you might say this man was looking for Jesus. Of course his Jesus was just a plastic figure with a 10-watt bulb inside. Sure, he was looking, but he wasn't looking for the right one. Today, many people say they are looking for God. But are they?

In Jesus' day, there were different groups of people looking for Him – all for different reasons, but not necessarily the right ones. The Jews were looking for Jesus, but they wanted to find Him in order to kill Him since He had become Public Enemy Number One.

Another group of people looked for Jesus because of the great signs He had performed. They sensed that something big was about to happen. But it was not what these people thought. They thought Jesus would free them from the tyranny of Rome. But Jesus did not come to conquer Rome. He came to conquer sin and death. He did not come to make war with Rome. He came to make peace with God and man. These people misunderstood His mission. They were looking for Jesus, but they wanted Him on their own terms.

At Christmas, many people will celebrate Jesus' birth, yet they will live the rest of the year as though He never came. They want God in their lives, but they want Him on their own terms. They essentially say to God, "Look God, you can come into my life but don't tell me what to do. I will do things my way."

The Gospel of John refers to another group of people who wanted to see Jesus as "certain Greeks" (John 12:20-21). The Greeks of that day were renowned for their incredible philosophy, architecture, and learning. In fact, the city of Athens was regarded as the intellectual center of the world. The Greeks believed in multiple gods. It was said in that time it was easier to find a god in Athens than a man. But these men who came looking for Jesus obviously were dissatisfied with their philosophies, their religion, and their accomplishments. In verse 21 they said, "We wish to see Jesus." Unlike the Jewish leaders who wanted to kill Him and the multitudes that wanted Jesus to fit into their mold, it seems these "certain Greeks" had the right motives. They wanted more than just a passing glimpse of Jesus. They wanted to really see Him.

Is that your desire? The three wise men wanted to see Jesus and they were successful. Do you want to see Jesus? If so, then the place to look is in His Word, the Bible. He speaks through His Word. Jesus said, "In the volume of the book it is written of me..." (Hebrews 10:7). You don't need to go out and look for a guru who claims to have some special revelation. You can find everything you need to know about God in the pages of the Scripture. As you study His Word, you will begin to know Him, and He will begin to work in your life.

If your desire is to see Jesus, then I have great news for you. You can! To the blind He said come; to the deaf and afflicted He said come; to the wounded and suffering He said come; to the oppressed and possessed He said come. In Matthew 11:28 He said, "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

My friends, Jesus is near. All you have to do is search for Him, and you will find Him.

Loyd Naten is the General Bishop of the Pentecostal Church of God.

PERSPECTIVA DEL OBISPO

OBISPO GENERAL LOYD NATEN

BUSCANDO A JESÚS

He leído una historia recientemente sobre un hombre que había colocado una escena de la natividad en su patio delantero en la celebración de la Navidad. Algunos días después, vándalos robaron a su bebe Jesús de plástico. Dejaron a los sabios, María, José y las ovejas, pero tomaron a su bebe Jesús de plástico, que había sido encendido por una bombilla de 10 vatios. Este hombre estaba muy angustiado por el robo y emitió una súplica. Pidió a los responsables que trajeran a Jesús de plástico para su nacimiento. Incluso hizo el periódico, donde fue citado diciendo, "¿Sabes dónde está mi Jesús?, por favor devuélvelo a mí."

En cierto sentido, podrías decir que este hombre estaba buscando a Jesús. Por supuesto, su Jesús era solo una figura de plástico con una bombilla de 10 vatios dentro. Claro, él estaba buscando, pero no estaba buscando el correcto. Hoy, mucha gente dice que está buscando a Dios. ¿Pero realmente estarán?

En los días de Jesús, había diferentes grupos de personas que lo buscaban- por diferentes razones, pero no necesariamente las correctas. Los Judíos buscaban a Jesús, pero querían encontrarlo para matarlo desde que se había convertido en enemigo público número uno.

Otro grupo de personas busco a Jesús debido alas grandes señales que había realizado. Sentían que algo grande estaba a punto de suceder. Pero no era lo que pensaban estas personas. Pensaban que Jesús los liberaría de la tiranía de Roma. Pero Jesús no vino a conquistar Roma. El vino a vencer el pecado y la muerte. No vino a hacer guerra con Roma. El vino hacer la paz con Dios y el hombre. Estas personas no entendieron su misión. Estaban buscando a Jesús, pero lo querían a sus propios términos.

En Navidad, muchas personas celebraran el nacimiento de Jesús, pero vivirán el resto del año como si nunca hubiera venido. Ellos quieren a Dios en sus vidas, pero lo quieren en sus propios términos. En esencia, dicen a Dios, "Mira Dios, puedes entrar en mi vida, pero no me digas que hacer. Yo hare las cosas a mi manera."

El Evangelio de Juan se refiere a otro grupo de personas que querían a ver a Jesús como "ciertos Griegos" (Juan 12:20-21). Los Griegos de es día fueron reconocidos por su increíble filosofía, arquitectura y aprendizaje. De hecho, la ciudad de Atenas fue considerada como el centro intelectual del mundo. Los Griegos creían en múltiples de Dioses. Se decía que en ese tiempo era más fácil encontrar un Dios en Atenas que un hombre. Pero estos hombres que vinieron a buscar a Jesús obviamente estaban insatisfechos con sus filosofías, su religión y sus logros. En el versículo 21 dijeron, "Queremos ver a Jesús." A diferencia de los lideres Judíos que querían matarlo y de las multitudes que querían que Jesús encajara en su molde, parece que estos "ciertos Griegos" tenían los motivos correctos. Querían algo más que una mirada fugaz de Jesús. Querían en verdad verlo.

¿Es ese tu deseo? Los tres sabios quisieron ver a Jesús y ellos tuvieron éxito. ¿Quieres ver a Jesús? Si es así, entonces el lugar para mirarlo está en su palabra, la Biblia. El habla a través de su palabra. Jesús dijo, "en el rollo del libro está escrito de mi…" (Hebreos 10:7) Usted no necesita salir y buscar un gurú que afirma tener alguna revelación especial. Puedes encontrar todo lo que necesitas saber acerca de Dios en las páginas de la Escritura. Al estudiar su palabra, comenzaras a conocerlo, y comenzara a trabajar en tu vida.

Si tu deseo es ver a Jesús, tengo una gran noticia para ti. ¡Usted puede! A los ciegos dijo que vinieran; a los sordos y afligidos dijo que vinieran; a los heridos y al sufrimiento dijo que vinieran; a los oprimidos y poseídos dijo que vinieran. En Mateo 11:28 dijo, "Vengan a mi todos ustedes que están cansados y agobiados, y yo les daré descanso."

Mis amigos, Jesús está cerca. Todo lo que tienes que hacer es buscarlo, y lo encontraras.

SEARCHING FOR JESUS

The angel said to the women, "Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay" (Matthew 28:5-6).

If you read and reflect on the Gospel accounts about Jesus, you'll soon realize that He was a walking dispenser of hope! He lived a life that instilled in His followers the hope that they could find greater meaning and purpose in their lives. He spread tangible hope as He healed the broken hearts and diseased bodies of countless people. He embodied hope for our earthly lives, and He promised a hope-filled existence in Heaven for eternity to those who would trust and follow Him.

And when Jesus was challenged to explain the reasons for such hope, He staked it all on one imminent event: "Destroy this temple," He said, "and in three days I will raise it up." John explained in His gospel that the "temple [Jesus] had spoken of was His body" (John 2:19, 21). He was predicting not only His death, but also and especially His resurrection from the dead three days later.

On the first Easter morning, the women went to the tomb where Jesus was laid after His death. They had gone there to apply spices to Jesus body as was the custom. Undoubtedly grief-stricken, these women came to the tomb and were met by two messengers, angels of the Lord, who delivered a powerful message they did not expect. "Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay" (Matthew 28:5-6). What a heart-stirring message for all of us!

The cornerstone of the Christian faith is the resurrection of Jesus Christ; without it there would be no reason to believe Jesus could save us from anything. 1 Corinthians 15:17-19 says, "And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished. If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable."

Thankfully, Paul didn't stop there! He went on to declare, "But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man. For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive" (1 Corinthians 15:20-22).

The story is told of a nine-year-old boy named Philip who had Down syndrome. In Sunday school the other kids made fun of him because he was different. The Sunday before Easter the teacher gave each of the kids a plastic egg and asked them to look for symbols of new life (like seeds and leaves) and then place them inside the egg. The idea was to open their eggs on Easter Sunday and discuss what they had found. When the children gathered, they had collected all sorts of things like flowers, butterflies, and rocks. But when the teacher opened Philip's egg, it was empty. One child said, "That's not fair, he didn't do it right!" Philip tugged at the teacher's sleeve and said, "I did do it right. It's empty because the tomb is empty. That's why we have new life." The class gasped and from then on Philip rose to a new level of respect and became part of the group.

Sadly, Philip's family knew his time was short – too many problems for one small body. That summer he died. As the class of eight-year-olds faced the reality of death, they marched up to the altar but not with flowers. Together with their teacher, they each placed an empty plastic egg on their friend's tiny casket.

Today the tomb in Jerusalem is empty because Jesus arose on the third day! Now He is seated on His throne at the right hand of the Father on High, where He ever lives to make intercession for you and for me (Hebrews 7:25). That means we never have to struggle alone. At any time of the day or night, we can come boldly before the throne of grace and ask for divine assistance (Hebrews 4:16).

There is no mountain in your life God cannot move. So make your request known to Him, confidently expecting Him to move on your behalf. As you do, you will receive supernatural grace to help in the time of need. The tomb is empty and Jesus is alive!

PCG GENERAL CONVENTION 2017

SPEAKERS

TUESDAY NIGHT 6.27

Loyd L. Naten pastored his first church in 1973 in Findlay, Ohio. Since then he has pastored in Bakersfield, El Cajon, and La Habra, California. He served as secretary for the Southern California District of the Pentecostal Church of God for eight years and as district bishop for eight years. During his tenure as Southern California bishop, he also served for four years as an assistant general bishop for the Southwestern Region of the Pentecostal Church of God. In June 2003, he was elected as director of PCG World Missions, where he served for eight years. In June 2011, he was elected general secretary for the PCG and was elected as the organization's general bishop in 2015.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT 6.28

David Petty has been serving the Pentecostal Church of God as director of the Indian Missions Department since November 2011. Prior to this time, he and his wife, Ruby, had various experiences in youth, pastoral, and sectional leadership. They also served as the New Mexico District presbyter. David and Ruby personally invested in Indian Missions, serving as pastors in Dulce, New Mexico, on the Jicarilla Apache Reservation. They envision empowering current pastors and facilitating training for future Native American leaders. The Pettys have three children, 10 grandchildren, and a foster granddaughter. In their leisure time, they enjoy traveling and outdoor activities.

Andy Hunt of Kingwood, Texas, has been a PCG minister since 1985. He and his wife, Lenora, have also served as senior pastors at the New Caney Family Worship Center in New Caney, Texas, for the past 28 years. In 2009, Andy was appointed to serve as the PCG National Missions director, where he oversees various ministries of compassion within the United States. He is a member of the PCG General Board, the Global Missions Board, and the Messenger College Board of Governors, and is a PCG chaplain. Andy is influential in his community, where he leads a Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) and was recently appointed to the Child Protective Services (CPS) board in Montgomery County, Texas. Andy and Lenora have been married for 30 years. They have one son, Ted; a daughter-in-law, Emily; and two of the most amazing grandsons in the world – Andrew, 16, and Gavin, 13.

Virgil Kincaid attended Southern Bible College, graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in missions. He has served the Pentecostal Church of God in the states of Texas, Arkansas, Indiana, Ohio, and Florida as a local church youth director, sectional youth director, state youth director, and as an assistant national youth director. He has also served as an assistant pastor, pastor, sectional presbyter, state executive presbyter, state executive secretary-treasurer, state bishop, and assistant national bishop. In 2003, Virgil began serving the PCG as a resident missionary in Trinidad and Tobago, West Indies. At the same time, he served as the area supervisor for the Caribbean. After the Haiti earthquake of January 2010, he coordinated the rebuilding effort of damaged churches across Haiti and the national church compound in Port au Prince. In June 2011, he was elected to serve as the PCG World Missions director. Virgil and his wife, Janie, reside in Bedford, Texas. They have nine children, 21 grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

THURSDAY NIGHT 6.29

Randy Lawrence and his wife, Dawn, have a tremendous passion to serve this generation. They have served the body of Christ in a variety of leadership capacities, including the local, district, and national office of the Pentecostal Church of God. Randy and Dawn have four children: Chase, Maia, Cali, and Jaxon. Randy holds a master's degree in leadership and management from Liberty University. In 2014, Randy and Dawn became the directors of PCG National Student Ministries, and in June 2016 Randy became the president of Messenger College.

CONGRATULATIONS

Messenger College is pleased to introduce members of the graduating class of 2017. These students plan to complete a Bachelor of Arts degree and participate in commencement ceremonies on Saturday, May 6, 2017. We are proud of their academic achievements and are confident that each graduate will have a great impact in the Kingdom of God as world-changing Pentecostal leaders for the 21st century.

MESSENGER COLLEGE GRADUATING CLASS OF 2017

AMANDA RODRIGUEZ

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN CHRISTIAN MINISTRY • STUDENT MINISTRIES CONCENTRATION

Amanda "Mandy" Rodriguez of Houston, Texas, will complete her Bachelor of Arts in Christian Ministry with an emphasis in Student Ministries and minor in Pastoral Ministry. She is married to Robert, a continuing student at Messenger College, and plans to pursue a Master of Arts in Education at Liberty University. Mandy served in Student Leadership at MC for several semesters and looks forward to serving the student body. Mandy most recently worked for the Pentecostal Church of God National Missions Department and previously assisted the National Women's Ministry Department. She plans to work as a teacher's aide in the Euless area (Texas) after graduation.

"BE ON YOUR GUARD. STAND FIRM IN THE FAITH. BE COURAGEOUS. BE STRONG. AND DO EVERYTHING WITH LOVE."
– 1 CORINTHIANS 16:13-14

OLIVIA CARTER

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN CHRISTIAN MINISTRY • BIBLICAL STUDIES CONCENTRATION

Olivia Carter came to Messenger College from the small town of Edmore, Michigan. In August 2013 she felt God's call leading her to Dallas, Texas, to attend Messenger. She will complete her Bachelor of Arts in Christian Ministry with a Biblical Studies concentration. Olivia says, "Messenger College was the vehicle God used to transform my ideas of life, myself, and of God. I had assumed the Lord had placed me on earth to sing; however, during my journey at Messenger, I've learned to discern the voice of the Spirit." During her time as a student, Olivia served as student body president. Olivia was inspired by her faculty mentor, Vernell Ingle, because of his relentless passion to motivate students in the direction of their calling. Olivia plans to attend graduate school in pursuit of a Master of Theological Studies degree as a biblical scholar and communicator of God's Word.

"THEREFORE HUMBLE YOURSELVES UNDER THE MIGHTY HAND OF GOD, THAT HE MAY EXALT YOU AT THE PROPER TIME, CASTING ALL YOUR ANXIETY ON HIM, BECAUSE HE CARES FOR YOU." – 1 PETER 5:6-7

REBECCA LACAVA

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN CHRISTIAN MINISTRY • WORSHIP MINISTRY CONCENTRATION

Rebecca "Becca" LaCava will receive her Bachelor of Arts in Christian Ministry degree with an emphasis in Worship Ministry and a minor in Business Administration. She also graduates with scholastic honors. Her next steps include pursuing a Master of Arts degree to prepare for a profession in education. Her most valuable experience throughout her program was the internship course. She says, "My internship opened my eyes to the purpose of the entire academic and college experience." Becca is recently engaged to be married and looks forward to a spring wedding. She currently serves at her local church on the worship ministry team.

"SURELY GOD IS MY SALVATION; I WILL TRUST AND NOT BE AFRAID. THE LORD, THE LORD HIMSELF, IS MY STRENGTH AND MY DEFENSE; HE HAS BECOME MY SALVATION." – ISAIAH 12:2

MACIE MING

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN CHRISTIAN MINISTRY • BIBLICAL STUDIES CONCENTRATION

Macie Ming will receive her Bachelor of Arts in Christian Ministry with an emphasis in Biblical Studies. Although Macie began her program at the Joplin campus, she will complete her degree through Messenger College's teaching site at Higher Vision Leadership School. As the eldest of four children, Macie holds true to her parent's value of balancing and prioritizing family and ministry. She felt an early call to worship ministry and currently serves as the assistant worship pastor at Higher Vision Church in Valencia, California. Macie says, "My heart is that not only will I love God and people well, but that I will be a worship leader with my life, continuously bringing glory to God in all I do."

"AND SO, DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS, I PLEAD WITH YOU TO GIVE YOUR BODIES TO GOD BECAUSE OF ALL HE HAS DONE FOR YOU. LET THEM BE A LIVING AND HOLY SACRIFICE – THE KIND HE WILL FIND ACCEPTABLE. THIS IS TRULY THE WAY TO WORSHIP HIM." – ROMANS 12:1

BRITTANY WEED

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN COUNSELING

Brittany Weed is a Central California District native. She felt called to Messenger College in July 2012 and, one month later, found herself on a one-way flight to Texas. Worship ministry is one of Brittany's passions, but during her general psychology and essentials of leadership coursework God began to direct her heart towards the ministry of counseling. During this time, Messenger College obtained approval with its accreditation commission to launch a new Bachelor of Arts in Counseling degree program. While Brittany's passion for worship ministry has not diminished, she is confident in the direction of the Holy Spirit towards a counseling profession and is thankful she listened to God's voice. She will be one of the first graduates in this degree program at Messenger, and she plans on pursuing her professional studies in marriage and family therapy at The King's University.

"THE SPIRIT OF THE SOVEREIGN LORD IS ON ME, BECAUSE THE LORD HAS ANOINTED ME TO PROCLAIM GOOD NEWS TO THE POOR. HE HAS SENT ME TO BIND UP THE BROKENHEARTED, TO PROCLAIM FREEDOM FOR THE CAPTIVES AND RELEASE FROM DARKNESS FOR THE PRISONERS, TO PROCLAIM THE YEAR OF THE LORD'S FAVOR…" – ISAIAH 61:1-2

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN CHRISTIAN MINISTRY • INTER-CULTURAL STUDIES CONCENTRATION

Belinda Ezell will complete her Bachelor of Arts in Christian Ministry degree with an emphasis in Inter-Cultural Studies, minoring in both Student and Pastoral Ministry. Belinda greatly appreciates the faculty who demonstrate the lifestyle of a world changer each and every day. At present, she is preparing for her internship in Guatemala with PCG Missionaries Les and Charlene Melton. Belinda's passion for the mission field grew stronger during her time at MC, and her experiences at Messenger helped cultivate and prepare her for the journey ahead. In Belinda's words: "My time here has helped me become exactly who God has designed me to be…I am excited to see where God takes me next and I have Messenger College to thank for that."

"FOR 'EVERYONE WHO CALLS ON THE NAME OF THE LORD WILL BE SAVED.' BUT HOW CAN THEY CALL ON HIM TO SAVE THEM UNLESS THEY BELIEVE IN HIM? AND HOW CAN THEY BELIEVE IN HIM IF THEY HAVE NEVER HEARD ABOUT HIM? AND HOW CAN THEY HEAR ABOUT HIM UNLESS SOMEONE TELLS THEM? AND HOW WILL ANYONE GO AND TELL THEM WITHOUT BEING SENT? THAT IS WHY THE SCRIPTURES SAY, 'HOW BEAUTIFUL ARE THE FEET OF MESSENGERS WHO BRING GOOD NEWS!' " – ROMANS 10:13-15

CHARLES UNDERWOOD II

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN COUNSELING

Charles "Eddie" Underwood II is an ordained minister with the Pentecostal Church of God. Upon the completion of his degree at Messenger, he will become a third-generation alumni of a PCG Bible college. As an adult learner, Eddie found great reward in meeting the challenges presented in balancing family life, ministry, career, and education. Eddie currently serves as the campus pastor at Messenger College, and he previously served as residence director from 2014 to 2016. He and his wife Carrie came to Messenger from the Indiana District Pentecostal Church of God, where he served as district youth director. Eddie is passionate about continuing his education at Grace College, where he plans to pursue a Master of Arts in Professional Counseling and certification as a licensed professional counselor. His passion is to mentor and serve young adults as they become leaders in the Kingdom of God.

"BUT WITHOUT FAITH IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO PLEASE HIM, FOR HE WHO COMES TO GOD MUST BELIEVE THAT HE IS, AND THAT HE IS A REWARDER OF THOSE WHO DILIGENTLY SEEK HIM." – HEBREWS 11:6

WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
PENTECOSTAL CHURCH OF GOD

Empowered Women's Ministries–through Light Another Candle–has refurbished the laundry facility at the Messenger College Commons, our student housing.

The students now have four washers and dryers with updated plumbing and electrical. No more waiting for hours to take care of laundry chores!

We have also installed a computer lab at the Commons for the students to use after school hours.

THANK YOU LADIES, PASTORS, AND OUR PCG CHURCHES FOR YOUR GENEROUS DONATIONS!

A farewell to

CHAPLAIN DR. LEMUEL M. BOYLES

THE PCG RECENTLY LOST A GREAT FRIEND AND SERVANT...

Chaplain, Dr. Lemuel M. (Lem) Boyles, Colonel, USAF (retired), 82, passed away January 27, in Albuquerque after a long, hard fight with cancer. Many remember Chaplain Boyles from his 64 years in the ministry, his 28 years as an Air Force chaplain, and his humor and compassion as bishop of the New Mexico District. He was ordained through the Central California District in 1980 and was appointed director of chaplains and the endorser for the Pentecostal Church of God in 1998, where he served until his departure to be with the Lord. He also served as a seniors' pastor for his local church and was known for his wide-ranging impact around the world.

When we reflect upon Chaplain Boyles' impactful life, the question becomes: What steps in life did this man take to reach an end-point – appreciated, mourned, and loved by so many? Then another: What nuggets might an aspiring minster take away from his successful life of service?

Chaplain Boyles was born in depression-era central California to simple, hard-working, tent-revival Christian parents of Irish/English stock. There was little "grey" in the Boyles' household. What you did was either right or wrong. Growing up, Chaplain Boyles was instilled with the ideas of duty, honesty, character, doing the right thing, individual responsibility, and doing whatever it takes to "get the job done." During the war years he was even known locally for collecting and donating scrap iron for the war effort.

In 1952, Chaplain Boyles graduated from Canyonville Bible Academy, a four-year Christian high school in southern Oregon. At CBA he was surrounded by a like-minded support network, which has paved the way for countless ministers over recent decades. Lifelong friendships were developed.

He attended Central Bible College in Springfield, Missouri; married and started a family; and then graduated with his BA in theology in 1957. At CBC he was the founding tenor of the Couriers Quartet. Interestingly, the Couriers disbanded in 2010 after 57 years of singing gospel music around the country.

Chaplain Boyles attended Golden Gate Baptist Seminary in San Francisco and received his MS in divinity in 1965. During school, he worked full time as a taxi driver and short-haul truck driver; part time as an associate pastor and music director; and still managed to be a full-time parent.

In 1966, Chaplain Boyles joined the Air Force (AF), where he honed his ministerial skills. He strongly believed he was there to support our troops – training and practicing for possible wartime operations. This bore fruit in 1983 when he deployed with the first AF units into Grenada, and he roamed the airfield and surrounding areas supporting troops of all services. At one point, he unexpectedly met a missionary and former fellow member of the Couriers Quartet. When informed they were running out of supplies, he contacted his base back in the States and had enough turkeys flown in for the mission to have a Thanksgiving meal.

"CHAPLAIN BOYLES ...[CHARGED] THROUGH LIFE GUIDED BY HIS FAVORITE BIBLE VERSE: 'I CAN DO ALL THINGS THROUGH CHRIST WHICH STRENGTHENETH ME' (PHILIPPIANS 4:13)."

Chaplain Boyles was an active "retiree," PhD, author, pastor, and mentor. He truly enjoyed bringing new chaplains into the military. In the final analysis, Chaplain Boyles took on all opportunities – charging through life guided by his favorite Bible verse: "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me" (Philippians 4:13). His many accomplishments and wide-ranging impacts were a direct result of his belief that nothing is impossible if strengthened by Christ. His background, training, and belief allowed him to cover quite a bit of ground.

WE SALUTE YOU CHAPLAIN BOYLES. THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE.

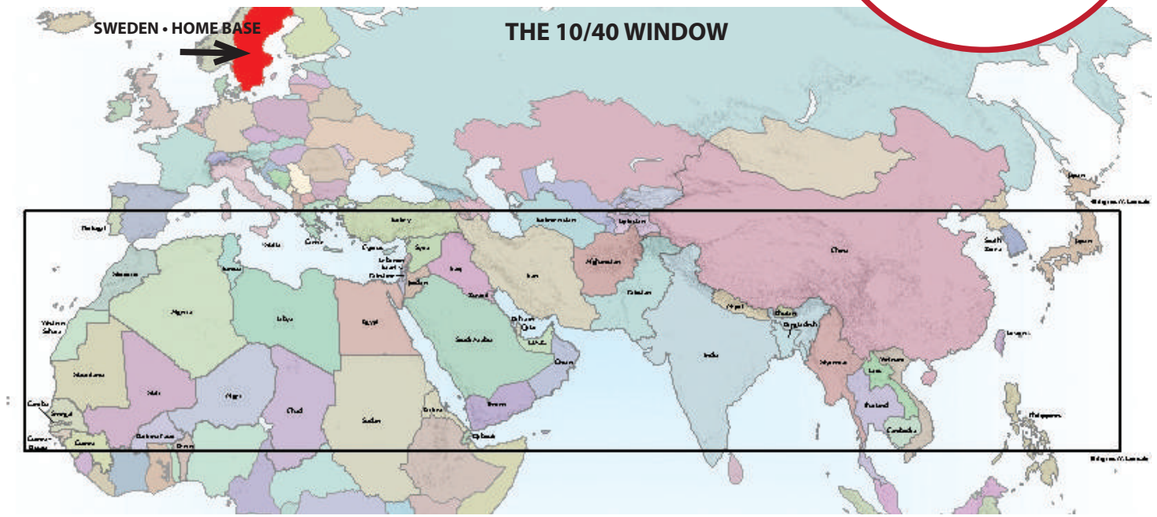
Missionary Spotlight

UNREACHED PEOPLE GROUPS



KARL & JENNIFER HARGESTAM

PCG Missionaries to Unreached People Groups

Karl and Jennifer Hargestam have served as Pentecostal Church of God missionaries since 1993, at which time they served in Ethiopia. Their vision for ministry has taken them beyond the borders of Ethiopia and they are now reaching out to nations within the 10/40 Window — bringing the gospel to unreached people groups. They are the founders of Joshua Campaign International, a pioneer mission and evangelism movement that reaches hundreds of thousands each year. More than 3 million people have responded to the gospel. Thousands of churches have been planted as they call for a gospel army of believers to join the great "assignment." Millions in Africa, Asia, and the Middle East have been impacted by the work of Joshua Campaign. During Karl's early ministry in Africa he, together with his family and staff, began an enormous effort among African tribes. Tribes that had never before heard the name of Jesus were able to hear and understand God's great gift for them. Source: www.joshuacampaign.org/frontpage

PRAY FOR:

Doors to continue to open for the expansion of the gospel to those who have never heard the name of Jesus.

FINANCIAL NEEDS:

Monthly support for Karl and Jennifer personally, who are based in Sweden.

ABOUT UNREACHED PEOPLE GROUPS:

According to the Joshua Campaign, there are 3,400 unreached people groups in the world that have not heard the gospel.
